

TRANSPORTATION

Entry Level Dispatcher/Transportation Professional

Large privately held trucking company has an immediate opening for a full time transportation professional:

- Must be able to work one weekend day a week
- Ability to work and succeed in a high pressure environment
- Ability to manage, motivate and lead our drivers
- Quick thinking and the ability to take charge and make accurate, quick decisions is a must

This is the perfect opportunity for a transportation professional who is looking to learn and work their way up in a growing trucking company or for a college graduate with a degree in a transportation field and a willingness to learn from the ground up.
