

About "R" Us

The heart of Toys "R" Us, Inc. lies within kids, family, and fun. The rich 60-year company history has yielded one of retail's most powerful icons and has solidified its position as THE toy and baby authority. Founded in 1948 by Charles Lazarus, Toys "R" Us revolutionized how parents shopped for their children. Featuring its iconic mascot, Geoffrey the Giraffe, and its catchy jingle, "I'm A Toys 'R' Us Kid," Toys "R" Us is one of the most beloved places by children all over the world. In 1996, Babies "R" Us was born, and for more than 10 years, has been revered the quintessential source for everything new and expectant moms need when preparing for baby's arrival!

Toys "R" Us is the world's leading specialty toy retailer. Currently it sells merchandise through more than 1,500 stores, including 586 stores in the U.S. and 678 international toy stores, which includes licensed and franchise stores, and through its Internet site at www.toysrus.com. Babies "R" Us is the largest baby product specialty store chain in the world and a leader in the juvenile industry, and sells merchandise through 251 stores in the U.S. as well as on the Internet at www.babiesrus.com.
