

Job Opportunity # 1

A high tech company in Auburn, NY seeks an experienced quality practitioner to serve in the role of change agent for Lean transformation. Should be familiar with implementing all the Lean tools in a manufacturing environment. This role is an operations management position, including direct reports, schedule attainment and profitability responsibility. If interested, forward your resume to: alane@tdo.com for consideration.

Job Opportunity # 2

Please see attached flyer for information on a second shift Quality Assurance Technician. Please note this position is located in New Berlin, NY.

Responsibilities include: Testing and monitoring physical samples/materials in accordance with quality standards to assure compliance. Conduct in-process inspections; test materials, processes, and evaluate finished products. Document and communicate product status; maintain documentation systems and ensure quality control area is operating in the most efficient manner. Work closely with other departments in answering questions and solving problems relating to QC/QA issues.

Requirements: One to three years in an R & D, QA or paint mfg. environ.

Attention to detail

High quality standards

Well organized

Computer skills (Word, Excel, Outlook)

Excellent follow-up skills

Strong problem-solving and communication skills

Able to work second shift hours

Interested candidates may apply by sending their application or resume by mail to Bill Berthel, Golden Artist Colors, 188 Bell Road, New Berlin, NY 13411; or email to bberthel@goldenpaints.com.